

Appendix D

Interview Schedule Used in the Earning of Opportunities Survey

Village.....Sub-district.....District.....

- 1 Activity
- 2 Description of activity
- 3 Importance of this activity as a source of income
only source of income
main source of income supplemented by other activities supplementary source of income
- 4 Timing of the activity
all year round
after planting
after harvest
other times of the year
- 5 Amount of capital used to start the activity
- 6 Source of money for initial investment
- 7 If the fund was from loan, describe the terms of the loans.
- 8 Amount of recurrent cost per year
- 9 Source of recurrent cost.
- 10 What assistance did you receive in starting this activity? From whom?
- 11 What assistance do you get in improving this activity? From whom?
- 12 How long have you carried out this activity?
- 13 Why did you start the activity?
- 14 In order to start this activity, what special qualifications are needed?
- 15 Number of employees,if any, at the start of the activity and at present.
- 16 Characteristics of these employees: age, sex,training, responsibility, and wage
- 17 Raw materials needed: types, amount needed, source, procedure in obtaining and price.

- 18 What environmental conditions influence this activity?
- 19 Amount of products produced per day
- 20 Who are the buyers? How did you contact them?
- 21 What is the procedure for selling?
- 22 Price of the products
- 23 Earning from this activity: cost and income
- 24 How can you improve this activity?
- 25 How can the government assist you in this respect?
- 26 If the government assists other villagers in Ayuttaya to develop this activity, how would they affect your business?
- 27 Are you willing to be hired to train other villagers to acquire this skill?
- 28 Time during which you would be available
- 29 Would you object to a study tour of other villagers to your activity?
- 30 If not, when would you be willing to receive such a group?

สำนักหอสมุด
MAHASAT UNIVERSITY