

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The writer wishes to express her appreciation to Dr. Michael Molenda, who served as the director of this study. His guidance and help provided encouragement and invaluable assistance and were instrumental in making this study possible. She is also indebted to Dr. Dennis W. Pett, Chairman of her doctoral advisory committee and Dr. Christian W. Jung, for their advice and counsel throughout her graduate work.

The writer wishes to express her gratitude to the Audio-Visual Center, Indiana University and the Thai Government for their financial assistance.

The writer appreciates the cooperation of all the college instructors and CCTV administrators who participated in the study.

Finally, the writer wishes to express her appreciation to her husband, Surachai, for his assistance and encouragement throughout the study and to her children, Supatporn and Supatpong, for their patience and understanding.
