

VITA

Savaraj Sachchamarga was born on June 10, 1945, in Bangkok, Thailand, as the oldest son of Mr. Narong and Mrs. Vichitra Sachchamarga. He went to Bangkok Christian College and Triam Udom School for his early schooling. He received a Bachelor of Political Science degree from Chulalongkorn University in 1968. After working as a junior lecturer in the Department of Economics at Thammasat University for three years, he was awarded a Fulbright scholarship and Eastern Illinois University scholarship to study at Eastern Illinois University. After receiving a master degree in economics in 1973, he was awarded a Fulbright scholarship to further his study for a Ph.D. degree in economics at Texas A&M University. From 1974, he was awarded a research assistantship and teaching assistantship from Texas A&M University. In December 1977, he received the Doctor of Philosophy degree in economics from Texas A&M University. His major fields of specialization are monetary theory, public finance and regional economics.

His permanent mailing address is: 602 Soi Prasertdee, Sukumvit 63, Bangkok-11, Thailand. The telephone number at this address is 391-4141.

The typist for this dissertation was Miss Shirley Gresham.