

Acknowledgement

I would like to express my sincere gratefulness to my advisor, Dr. Junalux Chalidabhongse for her wonderful guidance, patience and dedication throughout my studies. She has been very understanding and supportive throughout my entire study. She has been extremely kind, helpful and considerate during my study for which I will always be very thankful. I cannot thank her enough for the innumerable times she has stayed over office hours just to help me with the thesis and the journal papers. This research would not have been possible without her. I am thankful to all the faculty members and staff of Management Technology department of SIIT, for their support and help on the research. My special thanks to Dr. Thanaruk Theeramunkong for his great help in many issues concerning my studies. He has been very kind. I would like to thank both of the committee members of my thesis Dr. Thanaruk Theeramunkong and Dr. Pornpimol Chongpaisal for their valuable comments and suggestions regarding the research.

I am extremely grateful to Professor Susumu Kunifuji from JAIST, Japan for kindly agreeing to be my external examiner and provide me with his valuable suggestions.

I am very thankful to Ms. Chorkaew Jaturanonda, my senior in SIIT, for all her help translating tons and tons of Thai to English documents and vice-versa during my survey studies and also with many other issues regarding my studies. I could not have conducted the surveys without her help. My special thanks to Mr. Tobias Raps and Mr. Kritsada Sriphaew for helping me with the technical difficulties and also for being a constant source of encouragement and moral support.

I wish to thank all my colleagues and friends in Management Technology, Information Technology and Industrial Engineering departments of SIIT for their help, concern and encouragement all the time. They have been true friends during stressful days. Special thanks are due to my roommates at different times (Ms. YuLin Chang, Ms. Chananes Akjiratikarl and Ms. Shrija Pradhan) who have put up with me all these years, looked out for me and have taken care of me.

Professor Eberhard Hohl, Ms. Christine Lauer and other friends in Germany, I would like to convey my appreciation for their supervision, help and guidance during my 5-month research period in Hochschule Ravensburg, Germany. I am particularly indebted to the School of Management Technology for providing me with Teachers Assistant Scholarship which helped a great deal regarding the financial aspect of my study at SIIT.

Last but not the least, I wish to thank my family for their unconditional love, care and encouragement all through my life. My grandmother who has always kept me in her prayers, my father who has constantly given me good advice, my mother who has always showered me with her unconditional love and my lovely sisters without whom I cannot imagine my life, thank you for always being there for me and not giving up on me.
