

Abstract

“The Chinese Chamber of Commerce : The Establishment of a Chinese Organization in Thailand” is an attempt to study the role of an outstanding chinese organization as the informal consular in Siam. Because of this role the Chinese Chamber of Commerce had been accepted as a represent of Chinese for negotiation and protection Chinese from colonialism and nationalism which is Kuomintang nationalism, Chinese Communist nationalism and Thai nationalism. In addition this study try to study the changes of economy, polity and society that effect to the Chinese Chamber of Comerce.

The role of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce had changed when economy, polity and society changed that was caused by condition in and out of country. The Chinese Chamber of Comerce is an important for oversea chinese who immigrated from China and lived in Thai nation state. And the Chinese Chamber of Commerce is a represent of China for intertrade between Chinese in Siam and China and is a Chinese consular in Thai. The Chinese Chamber of Commerce in that period must change follow a pressure of the power of colonialism and nationalism to survive in siam society. And the Chinese Chamber of Commerce tried in every ways to negotiate maximum interest for chinese entrepreneur.